

LONG LANE

Week of March 3.

Mr. Kelly is the second one in our little town to install a radio.

George Bennett is the owner of a new Ford roadster, a recent trade with Davies-Marsh Motor Co. of Buffalo.

Levert Cansler and family moved first of the week to the farm north-east this place.

Mrs. Gusta Smith is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Hosea Creek and son Hosea Jr., and Miss Hazel Bledsoe spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clause at Springfield and attended the Paul Bennett meeting there Sunday night.

A very enjoyable occasion was the Leap Year party given at the home of Miss Pauline Bledsoe on Friday night, Feb. 29th. A number of good games were played in which the girls were allowed to choose their partners on this special date. At a late hour delicious refreshments of fruit salad and angel food cake was served by Mrs. Bledsoe to the following: Lola and Lela Christian, Edra McArron, Anzella Wilson, Hazel Bledsoe, Thelma L. Creek, Paulie Bledsoe, and Oren Hackler Floyd Bennett, Leland Kelly, Earl Bert and Frank Peele, Howard Walker, Percy and Harry Talbot, and Glen Bledsoe.

On Wednesday, Feb. 27th, Miss Jewell McArron of this place and Mr. Harry Clause of Springfield, were married at Buffalo at 7:30 p. m. by Rev. Bays. Jewell is the eldest daughter of Fred McArron and wife. Mr. Clause's home is at Springfield. He has a good position with Herman Sanford Saddlery Co., at Springfield. They are at home at 813 South Kimbrough St. at Springfield. Their many friends here join in wishing them the best life affords.

Week of March 10th.

Wonder if any one missed the Long items last week.

One of the worst snow storms of the winter is here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clause of Springfield, and also Pearl McArron spent last of the week here with the ladies' parents.

Eld. Walker preached at the Christian church here Wednesday night of last week. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gann, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer and Mr. and Mrs. Orr. Some special music was rendered by part of them which was real good.

At a meeting here last week Mr. and Mrs. Milam Bledsoe were selected to go as delegates to the Democratic county convention at Buffalo last Saturday. They report a good meeting.

The dwelling which has been under construction for some time on the farm of Ray Burd has been completed enough for them to move into it.
